

Change from the heart

The Visionary Leadership Advanced Programme

A message from the programme's founder...

"Humanity is facing a difficult conundrum: we rely on leadership to organise and regulate our societies, our governments, our religions, our cultural and sports groups, our corporations, yet every existing model of leadership that exists is deeply flawed. In every area of our lives, self-interest, greed, corruption, short-term blindness and fear of danger and lack are not just commonplace, but have often become the norm. Our trust in our leaders, those who deeply influence and shape the context in which our lives take place, has eroded and disintegrated, leaving us cynical and despairing.

If humanity is to succeed and thrive, if it is to develop wholesomely, something big will have to change.

We will need to reappraise who we are, what drives us, what is most important and what we are willing to contribute to changing our old fear- and greed-driven paradigms. Ultimately, we will need to access a greatness deep in ourselves, a capacity that may have lain dormant all our lives. We will need to wake up to our infinite capacity to imagine, to envision, to create, to innovate and to love – not just for the sake of our individual selves, but for the sake of others as an integral part of that same universal self.

The Visionary Leadership program will allow you to uncover and consciously utilize an authentic greatness that lies within you, a greatness you may have long recognized but may not, until now, have known how to access and use. It is an opportunity to clear out old restrictive conditioning and to explore and practice your own unique expression of conscious greatness in the company of others willing to do the same.

If not you, then who? If not now, when?"

Kevin Billett, Founder of The Visionary Leadership Programme

CONSCIOUS
LEADERSHIP COACHING

The Visionary Leadership Advanced Programme

Uncover your own authentic greatness, the innate visionary leader that lies within, and become an agent of conscious transformation in your family, career and society.

Ask yourself: are you...

Ready to wake up and step into your full greatness, your real potential?

Longing to embrace a conscious set of values and actions aligned with your real purpose in life?

Willing to let life access and pull out of you the highest and the best you are capable of?

Prepared to be part of a brand new wave of authentic, conscious influence and change that starts internally and is spreading around our world?

Then join us. Come and clear the limitations, blocks and self-saboteurs that hold you back and keep you small or unfulfilled. Discover a stillness and clarity of purpose by tapping into your deepest self, your innate genius, and flourish in the service of true leadership by becoming an authentic instrument of conscious change.

Clear the Hidden Blocks and Develop Your True Leadership Greatness, Passion and Vision

At The Visionary Leadership Programme you will discover how to:

- Identify the qualities you admire the most in the world's truly great corporate, political, humanitarian and spiritual leaders, and discover how to live authentically as an embodiment of those highest qualities.
- Free yourself from labels, rules, and identities that have limited you or kept you small and open into your highest, deepest, fullest potential.
- Uncover and clear the damaging and undermining traps of victim, blame and defence games, take wholesome responsibility to stand in the truth of your own infinite capacity.
- Clear specific deep-seated 'ego traps' that have sabotaged and sidelined you in the past, and free yourself to operate from an unshakable sense of purpose and direction.
- Move beyond old paradigms of fear driven 'winner takes all' competition and harness the exponential power of cooperative competition.
- Discover how and why some of your prized values can actually be traps; get clear on which are your true core values and let them truly support, direct and champion you.
- Take the lid off your leadership potential and radiate true authenticity as you give unbridled permission and encouragement for others to do the same.

Prerequisite: Conscious Leadership Workshop or The Journey Intensive

What makes us different?

There are large numbers of leadership books available and a number of leadership seminars on offer. The books are full of description, story and anecdote; they are sometimes inspiring, but they do not give direct methods, strategies, tools that will allow you to truly uncover, develop and embody the greatness of conscious and visionary leadership. Everyone has an opinion as to what great leaders look, sound and act like – their qualities are demonstrable, even if we disagree about the relative values of those qualities – but no one can tell us how to achieve the greatness we sometimes see in others.

This is where Conscious Company has a rare advantage, and a unique proposition. With the Visionary Leadership Programme we have the tools that can wake up and welcome forth the innate genius, the innate greatness in us all. We have the tools to directly foster, engender and develop the highest quality conscious leadership. These skills, these tools and realisations are yours for the taking.

With Kevin Billett

25 Sept – 3 October 2015

€ 1,995

Wellness Hotel Patince ****

Patince, Slovakia

The course fee includes all course materials and refreshments. It is required that you place a booking with the hotel directly. A special package of € 578 has been arranged for you and includes: 8 nights' accommodation with full board (vegetarian and fish), free admission to the water and sauna world, the fitness centre; free parking included. For single accommodation please add € 100

You can book the retreat via e-mail: rezervacie@wellnesspatince.sk

More information about the hotel on www.wellnesspatince.sk/en/home/

What Others Are Saying...

"This program is the utmost personal development course I have participated at and can recommend it to all professionals, and especially to leaders in companies and (non)governmental institutes."

Caroline Bun, Personal Coach

"Kevin provides coaching of the highest quality to business owners, NGOs and government. This truly paradigm-shifting work has had a direct impact on my work output and effectiveness. The in-depth clearing of old issues that spilled into the workplace and family life has led to greater productivity at work and happier, healthier lifestyle at home. I can honestly say this work changed my life."

Lesley Strutt, Living Starts, University of Ottawa

+44 (0) 1656 880 500 • vlurope@consciouscoaching.org
www.consciouscoaching.org/vl

