The Journey Practitioners' Programme - Disclaimer

During the Programme you will be using The Journey as a process of guided introspection, in which you will be getting in touch with powerful emotions and uncovering cellular memories stored inside your own body.

Whilst we will do everything we can to support you during and after this Programme, Journey Events Ltd; its employees and associates cannot be held responsible for either your personal process work or any of its results.

The Journey strongly recommends that you support your physical body to the highest and best during the period of your training. The courses themselves can sometimes involve long hours of study and processing, so adequate sleep and conscious food intake are particularly important during these times. We also recommend that, as far as is possible, you should book a day or two of rest time immediately following the residential retreats for your body and being to integrate prior to returning to work.

Terms and Conditions

Your booking is valid for a period of 24 months during which all courses must be booked and completed. You must attend all events listed and be able to fully commit for the duration of the event. All Journey events are experiential and your participation is required fully. To become an Accredited Journey Practitioner, you must also complete and submit 49 case studies which will be assessed by one of The Journey Case Study markers. If you are Accredited, your name will be placed on The Journey Website.

CODE OF CONDUCT GUIDING PRINCIPLES FOR JOURNEY PRACTITIONERS AND TRAINING JOURNEY PRACTITIONERS

The Journey Practitioner Programme is possibly the most comprehensive, in-depth, transformational, healing programme available in our time. It guides and empowers you with a vast array of cutting-edge skills and liberating process work, which can powerfully and positively transform every area of your life, allowing your full potential to flourish, freeing you to live life to its fullest. It can enable you to bring that healing transformation and awakening to others, facilitating unbridled freedom and vibrant health.

MAINTAINING THE HIGHEST PROFESSIONAL AND ETHICAL STANDARDS

The Journey is continually deepening, expanding and growing organically as an organisation. Once you have completed the Programme and attained Journey Accreditation, your status as a Journey Accredited® Practitioner will be valid for life.

Your case studies will be reviewed and assessed based on your capacity to work with people in a therapeutic and one-to-one setting. Therefore, your Journey Accredited® status authorises you to practice one-to-one therapies only.

The Journey does not ascertain nor reference your relative presentational abilities in group settings, so your qualification will not apply to offering workshops, seminars, retreats or to teach The Journey Method or process work.

We do welcome you to offer introductory presentations in your communities and we encourage that your Introductory presentations are always based on speaking from your own direct experience. Within the Introductory Talk context, you are authorised to use the following mini-process work:

1. The Gentle Welcome
2. Healing Sand Meditation
3. Belief Change

If you are qualified to offer seminars in another modality, or have created your own seminar or retreat and if you include these mini processes as teasers or tasters to Journeywork, we request that you always credit The Journey as the originators and encourage participants to attend an authorised Journey Intensive workshop.

With this agreement you are bound not to offer or teach any trademarked Journey Course or include teaching the Emotional, Physical Journey processes or Designer Process in your courses or seminars.

We strongly encourage you to deepen in your own experience of Journeywork and to keep up to date with the most current teachings. This will help you to maintain the highest professional and ethical standards in your practice.

RESPECT FOR THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OF THE JOURNEY AND BRANDON BAYS

- As a Journey Accredited® Practitioner please create your own company name and logo. Your company should have an identity distinct and separate from The Journey's.
- As a Journey Accredited® Practitioner in your one-to-one Journey Practice, you are licensed to use Brandon Bays' name, The Journey name, The Journey books' titles and subtitles (in any language), and The Journey's logo.
- You are not permitted to use Brandon's name, The Journey name, any Journey logo or device, The Journey books' titles or subtitles (in any language), the title or subtitle of any Journey seminar, workshop or retreat, or any derivative form of the above in any other context without written permission from a current Director of The Journey.

KEEPING YOUR RECOMMENDED STATUS AS A JOURNEY ACCREDITED® PRACTITIONER

In order to maintain and monitor the high quality of The Journey work available and to retain your Recommended Status as a Journey Accredited® Practitioner and be listed on The Journey International website you will need to:

- Attend an event once every year as a trainer – to stay in the energy, experience the new teachings and open freshly. This will support you to soak in the energy, deepen in your own spiritual experience and refresh your skills. Please book yourself in as a trainer with The Journey office. You can choose from the following events: Journey Intensive, Out of the Blue, Healing with Conscious Communication, Conscious Abundance (availability for this retreat is limited & requires you to book your place through the Journey office).
- Every 3 years from the year of your Accreditation, to attend a course or retreat that will keep you up to date and current with the latest teachings for Journey Practitioners, as well as support you in your own deepening, expansion and personal growth. You can choose from the following events: Journey Practitioner Mastery, No Ego Retreat, Advanced No Ego, Life Transformation Week, 6 months Life Transformation Mastery online membership, Enneagram & Abundance or Life Coaching Masterclass.

Should you choose not to, or be temporarily unable to meet the requirements necessary to maintain your 'recommended' status as a Journey Practitioner, your Practitioner's status will remain good and you will be free to continue practicing as a Journey Accredited Practitioner – your details will simply not appear on the Journey website and your name will be removed from the active 'recommended' register.

Should you subsequently meet the requirements your details will again be added to the website and the recommended list.

MAINTAINING THE JOURNEY'S GOOD NAME

As an Accredited Journey Practitioner, you will be required to maintain the good name of the Journey and your fellow practitioners. The rules and guidelines are simple and clear and are meant only to ensure that all Practitioners operate in a Grace-full, fair and ethical way – for the good of everyone.

Should "The Journey" receive any complaint in respect to your one-to-one practice, either about you as a practitioner (or practitioner in training) pertaining to any inappropriate behaviour, use/blend of additional therapies within an agreed journey process, or bad business practice, The Journey staff will then follow the complaints procedure (copy available on request.)

Please be aware that The Journey reserves the right to withdraw your status of being a Journey Practitioner in case of non-compliance or breach of these common-sense regulations. If you have any queries the Journey office team will help with any questions you may have.

RESPECT FOR THE TERMS OF THE LICENCE GRANTED TO YOU AS A JOURNEY ACCREDITED® PRACTITIONER

- You are expected to observe the above terms.
